While in Ontario, UHIP provides coverage for eligible medically necessary health services and medical treatments, which includes; hospital Services, doctor Services, other Practitioner Services, ambulance, diagnostic, laboratory and X-ray services, emergency services outside Ontario, and terminal illness or death.

Your plan includes coverage for repatriation fees and special services. In the event of the plan member's death, eligible expenses will include preparation and transportation of the remains subject to an overall lifetime maximum up to $20,000.00, or the cost of the casket and specialized equipment subject to an overall lifetime maximum up to $10,000.00.

Emergency coverage outside of Canada is limited. Insured members are encouraged to purchase additional coverage for travel.

Further details of covered expenses can be found on the UHIP website at www.uhip.ca.

Yours sincerely,

Dave Trudelle
